

Classification:

Irpinia Aglianico Doc

First year of production:

2012

Bottles produced on average:

3333

Variety:

100% Aglianico;

Vineyard surface:

5,5 hectares;

Altitude:

400 – 500 m.a.s.l.;

Exposure:

South – South- East;

Plant density:

4500-6000 vines per hectare;

Harvesting:

End of October, harvested by hand, with accurate selection;

Vinification:

Steel tanks, thermo-conditioned fermentation;

Aging:

French oak barrel and barriques (25 hl and 225 lt) for 8 months and bottles;

Territory of grape production:

Paternopoli (Avellino);

Fertilization and treatments:

Organic fertilization and phytosanitary defense with total abolition of chemical weeding;

Alcohol content:

13,5% vol.