

Vinha do almo

Vinho Regional Alentejano red 2016

Herdade do Perdigão

PORTUGAL · ALENTEJO · MONFORTE

The Estate:

Herdade do Perdigão is located in the heart of Alto Alentejo, near Monforte. An area covered by the microclimate of São Mamede mountain, responsible for the unique and differentiated Terroir found here

Winemaking and Viticulture:

The wine begins in the vineyard, where a strict control during all year to deliver the best fruit at harvest. The following is an extreme rigor and care in harvest to lead the grapes at the optimum point of ripeness to the cellar, where the winemaking team, using the most modern winemaking criteria, turn it into wines with the seal of Herdade do Perdigão.

Vinha do Almo – The Terroir within the Terroir

Among the extended parcels of Herdade do Perdigão vineyards, Vinha do Almo is one of the most exquisite.

The unique soil with the appropriate grape varieties make an exceptional wine.

Tasting notes:

Colour:	Dark rubi.
Aroma:	Red fruit with light floral notes.
Taste:	Round with mild tannins
Finishing:	Well ballanced
Food paring:	Barbecue
Service temperature:	16°C

Technical information:

Harvest:	Handpicked for cases of 25kg
Vinification:	After sorting the fully stalked clusters fermented in stainless steel tanks with temperature control for, approximately, 10 days.
Grape Varieties:	Trincadeira, Aragonez, Touriga Nacional
Lab Analysis:	Alcohol – 14% Total acidity– 6,1 g/L pH – 3,58 Total sugar – 0,3 g/L
Winemaker:	David Patrício

Herdade do Perdigão, Apartado 29, 7450-999 Monforte.

www.herdadeperdigao.pt

+351 245 578 135 ; geral@herdadeperdigao.pt